

Delta Epsilon Sigma Writing Contest

- To: All undergraduates at Mount Aloysius College (members and non-members of DES)
- Prizes: $500 first and $250 second prizes in each of 5 writing categories
- How: E-mail Dr. Fran Rohlf (frohlf@mtaloy.edu)
- Due Date: November 15, 2017

This is your opportunity to submit your work to a national writing contest for award money and publication! In addition to prize money, first and second prize-winning manuscripts are peer-reviewed and published in the Delta Epsilon Journal.

Please take courage and submit your work in any (or all) of the following 5 categories:

1. Poetry – original verse or prose
2. Short Fiction – original fiction, including short-short stories, short stories, and stand-alone sections of longer works (maximum 5,000 words)
3. Creative Nonfiction/Personal Essay – original, authentic pieces, conveying the writer’s worldview or feelings (maximum 5,000 words)
4. Critical/Analytical Essay – critical investigation of a text, social concern, or scholarly issue (maximum 5,000 words)
5. Scholarly Research – original primary or secondary research about a social or scientific question (maximum 5,000 words; 100-200 word abstract)

For more information about the writing contest, please go to: <http://www.deltaepsilonsigma.org/en-us/about/default.aspx> or write to me (see below).

Fran Rohlf, (frohlf@mtaloy.edu), Delta Chi Chapter Advisor of DES